EX. GOV. CHASE

Renominated for Governor by the Indiana Republicans.

Senator Theodore P. Shockney Nominated for Lieutenant Governor.

Aaron Jones for Secretary and Fred. J. Scholz for Treasurer-For Attorney General, J. D. Farrell Receives It-The Balance of the Ticket.

FT. WAYNE, Ind., June 28.-The convention hall was elaborately decorated and President Harrison's picture hung above the chairman's desk. At 10:10 o'clock Chairman Gowdy of the state committee began to rap for order. While Mr. Gowdy was still calling for order Judge C. C. Binckley, of Richmond, in pursuing the plan agreed upon by the Chase opposition, mounted a chair and moved that the convention adjourn until I o'clock.

"It is evident," said he, "that this is nothing than a disorganized mob. There are one hundred delegates here who can not be seated, and we ought to adjourn until afternoon in order that the hall may be cleared and no one admi: ted but delegates." There were cries of "no" and 'yes" and a wild scene followed.

Chairman Gowdy, when he got the attention of the convention, declared that Mr. Binckley was out of order as the convention had not yet organized. "Let's organize," said he, "and then the convention will be in your hands." He then called upon Rev. D. W. Moffet, paster of the First Presbyterian church, to offer prayer. The name of Hon Charles W. Fairaks for chairman was loudly cheered. Mr. Fairbanks made a ringing speech which was rapturously applauded.

The convention then took a recess until 2 m., pending which time better arrangements for handling and seating delegates will

THE PLATFORM. 1. The republicans of Indiana heartily approve the declaration adopted by the republic an national convention at Minneapolis. citizens of Indiana we congratulate the people of the state upon the nomination for president of the United States of our fellow citizen, Benjamin Harrison. The administration of the national government under his leadership has been marked by such wisdom and patriotism as to impress the whole country and give abund ant assurance that its continuance will add luster to the American name and increase the comfort of the American home. We commend the candidate of the republican party to the nation as eminently worthy of the suffrage of an intelligent and patriotic people.

2. The democratic party has often demon strated its incapacity for government in both national and state affairs. In Indiana, believ-ing itself intrenched behind a gerrymander of surpassing iniquity, it has shown a reckless disregard of the people's interest and welfare, imposing intolerable burdens without beneat. We therefore condemn the democratic manage ment of our state affairs as incompetent, waste ful and in the interest of party managers and direct attention especially to the subject hereafter mentioned.

3. Debt and democracy are synonymous terms with the taxpayers of Indiana. Unparalleled extravagances in public expenditures has marked the course of democracy in Indiana during the past decade, until the state is now burdened with a debt of $9,000,000. The current expenses of the state government have been radically increased by mismanagement. The burdens thus imposed have become too impressive to be endured. Our progress, as a peo-ple, has been greatly impeded and the credit of the state will soon become seriously impaired unless radical changes in the conduct of our pub lie business are speedily introduced. Relief lies with the people, and we invite the voters of all political opinions to unite in turning out of pow er, the party that has always been false to it es of economy and reform. 4. We arraign the democratic party of Indiana for enacting an unequal and unjust tax law. It imposes upon the farmer, laborer and house ider an excessive and unjust share of public burden: it creates a great number of unneces sary offices and hitherto unknown to law. To the burden of taxation already too heavy, it adds more than $100,000 for the fees, salaries and expenses of these offices and officers. We demand its radical revision. We pledge ourselves to enact such amendments to the present law as shall relieve the farm and the home from the unjust taxation now borne by them: which shall place a just share of the public burden on capital and corporate property and provide a more simple and less expensive method of assessment.

5. We condemn the action of the last demo cratic legislature in largely increasing the fees and salaries of the state and county officers. It made many public offices sinecures by pro-viding for the performance of official duties by deputies, paid out of the public funds.

6. The laws passed by the last democratic assembly, apportioning the state for legislative and congressional purposes, were designedly and wickedly framed so as to deny to many countles and localities fair and equal representation in the legislative department of the state and nation; to place, and return under democratic control in this state all its public institutions and affairs; and to give that party an increased and unfair representation in congress and the legislature. Such a policy is dangerous and destructive of all good government, and merits the condemnation of all patriotic people. * * *

7. We denounce the purpose of the democratic party, clearly avowed in the national platform. to repeal the law imposing a ten per cent. tax on state bank issues and thus removing the only barrier to a return of the system of "wildmoney which once disgraced our state and largely impoverished our people.

8 The democratic party deserves the emphatic condemnation of every citizen of the state for its refusal to place our benevolent institutions upon a non-partisan basis when murder, cruelty, debauchery, fraud and incompotency mark that party's management of many of these institutions; and for still persisting in retaining partisan control of the asylums of the helpless and unfortunate, that they may be made the coin in payment for party services. We therefore demand an absolute non-partisan management of the benevolent and reformatory institutions of the state. * * *

The platform favors the enactment by congress of a law compelling the use of standard safety car couplers for the protection of rullroad employes, opposes railway companies maintaining insurance companies and coercing their employes to become members. The em ployers of labor should be hable in damages for injuries to persons or destruction of life where the employer is more at fault than the em We also favor a law governing convict labor in penal institutions of the state that will work the least possible injury to free labor.

II. We most heartfly indorse the generous pension laws enacted by republicans in congress and congratulate the country that during the administration of President Harrison no pension bill has been vetoed. We demand that suttable and proper provisions be made for the care and maintenance of indigent soldiers and their wives and widows. * * We therefore advocate the establishment by the state, in con-nection with the Indiana department of the Grand Army of the Republic, of a suitable state Grand Army of the Republic, of a suitable state Soldiers' home for the care and maintenance of indigent soldiers and their wives and widows, upon the plan recommended by the G. A. R.
The republicans of Indiana lament the death of Gov. Alvin P. Hovey.

13. We tender to that eminent republican leader, James G. Blaine, and the members of leaser, James G Blaine, and the members of his family, our sincere sympathy and with them mourn the loss of those who so recently formed part of the family circle. The platform closed with a resolution adopt-ing the eagle as the emblem of the republican party for the coming campaign. Pr. WAYNE, Ind., June 29—The convention assembled at 1:20, and after some preliminary ork got down to business. The first thing of aportunce done was the reading and adopting the platform.

The counties were then called for the nomina-an of candidates for governor. Judge John C. adley, of Headricks, nominated Gov. Chass, and his nomination was seconded by several Chase was nominated on the first ballot, securing two-thtrds of the entire vote. Shockney was then nominated lieutenant governor. Judy o Byron K. Elliott received a few scattering votes for governor, he declared, much against h's will.

Senator Theodore Shockney was then placed to nomination for lieutenant governor, as also Chas. M. Travis, of Crawfordsville. A vo e was taken and resulted as follows: Shockney, 847; Travis, 566; Browniee, 27. Shockney's nomfination was made unanimous. Chairman Fairbanks then called for nominations for secretary of state. Gen. Packard, of New Albany, placed Aaron Jones in nomina-tion. Winfield Scott Carpenter was named as the representative of the miners and laboring eicment of the state. Though his nomination was seconded by representatives in all the count'es that comprise the district in which the miners are all powerful, he was defeated, the vote reading. Jones, 769; Carpenter, 665; Rhody Shiel receiving one vote in Hancock county.

Then came nominations for auditor of state, Isaac M. Walker, of Indianapolis, who was thought to be very much in the race, arose on the stage, and in a short speech in which he pledged his support to the ticket to be nominated, stated that he had decided not to perm t his name to go before the convention. Charley Bookwalter, the ex-laboring man, named Capt. John W. Coons, of Indianapelis: Col. Arnold named Wm. H. Liggett, of Columbia City.

It was easy victory for Coons, and Liggett's name was withdrawn before the roll of counties was one-half through with, and Coons' nomination was made by acclamation.

Two ballots were taken for state treasurer. The second vote resulted as follows: Fred J. cholz, 829; Lee W. Sinclair, 601. Scholz's nomination was made unanimous. Nominations for attorney-general were called for. The call of districts produced three candi-Judge Chipman, of Madisonville, named John W. Lovett, of Midison county. Ex-Consman' James T. Johnston was also named. N. Babcock, of Ft. Wayne, named Ex-Judge Joseph D. Farrell, of Lagrange county. The ballot stood as follows: Farrell, 639: Lovett, 457; Johnston, 296.

Before the vote was announced Johnston's ame was withdrawn. There was no nomination and another ballot was ordered, the vote on he second standing as follows: Farrell, 815; Lovet, 614. Farrell was declared the nominee. and his nomination was made unanimous upon motion of Mr. Lovet.

The balance of the ticket was nominated as Reporter of Supreme Court-George P. Hayood, of Tippecanoe county. Superintendent of Public Instruction—James H. Henry, of Morgan county.

Statistician-Simon J Thompson, of Shelby Judge Supreme Court: Second District-John

T. Miller, of Decutur county.
Third District—Byron K. Elliott, of Marion Fifth District-Robert W. McBride, of Elk-

Second District—Chas S. Baker, of Bartholo-

Third District-James B. Black, of Marion

Fourth District-Milton S. Robinson, of Pelaware county.
Fifth District—Edwin P. Crumbacker, of Por-

r county. This ended the work of the convention, and 9:45 o'clock to-night, with three cheers for Harrison and Reid, three cheers for Patr-banks, John K. Gowdy and Frank Milligan, he secretary of the state central commit tee, the republican state convention adjourned sine die, the delegates and their friends marching out of the hall singing national airs.

A NEW PARTY,

Composed Entirely of Negroes, Will Make

Nominations for President. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 29.-Guadaoupe county saw the birth of a new party, which has no connection with the democracy, republicanism, prohibition, or any political organization heretofore existing; indeed, it is opposed to them all. Under a call issued by B. Berry, a large number of Negroes assembled in mass meeting and perfected a permanent organization, with Berry as chairman, and adopted a platform which calls for Negro nominations for every office within the gift of the American people, from president down to constable. It recites that democracy is inherently opposed to the African; that republicanism has been false to him; that there is no hope for him in the people's party and that he is the national balance of power. Delegates from every voting precinct were duly appointed and a convention called for July 22

THE BEHRING SEA.

Seal Ponchers Fired Upon by the Warship

Mohican. SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.-According to advices received from Ochalaska things are going to be lively in the Behring sea this season. Already there is a report that the warship Mohican has fired upon a runaway sealer. The indications are that a number of the poachers will defy the fleet and enter the Behring sea at the risk of seizure and imprisonment. The migrating herds are now near the passes in the close, and the cruisers are following them. "Fighting Bob" Evans has evinced a determination to balk the poachers without regard to consequences. He has been informed that it a part of the sealers' plan to dodge into Russian waters in case of pursuit, and is ready to checkmate that move.

The Fusion Question.

CINCINNATI, June 29. - The question of fusion with the people's party was sprung among the prohibition delegations Tuesday afternoon, and has awakened much discussion. Albert Dodge, of Michigan, vigorously advocated fusion, declaring that was the only way to win success. It is said that Miss Willard favors fusion. Gov. St. John declares against it, and said that the statement that Bidwell would withdraw in favor of Weaver if the latter be nominated by the people's party at the Omaha convention, was without any foundation whatever. While the sentiment seems strong against fusion, there are enough advocates of it to make it interesting in the convention, and it is likely there will be a fight made upon that issue. Badges are being worn by many, chiefly Demorest delegates, reading fusion. State Central Committee's Election. COLUMBUS, O., June 20 .- The central committee has elected Maj. Dicks, of Akron, chairman, John R. Malloy, secretary, and George Sinks, of Columbus, treasurer of the republican executive committee. The committee then adjourned until Tuesday afternoon, when it will elect the executive committee.

Workingmen Are Leaving Baku in Drove -A Feature of the Epidemic is the Rapidity With Which the Persons Stricken With It Collapse.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—Consternation prevails in some parts of the empire owing to the rapid spread of cholera. At Baku, capital of the government of Baku, on the west coast of the Caspian sea, thirty-five new case of the disease were reported Monday. Baku is a great petroleum shipping The streets are narrow and crooked, and the town is generally ill-Sanitary rules are more honored in the breach than in the observance, though since the ministry of the interior has taken the matter in hand some little improvement is seen.

The city contains Parsee temples, to which pilgrimages are made by that sect, and it is highly probable that the disease was introduced by the pilgrims. Thousands of the workmen employed in the city and at the petroleum springs on the peninsula of Apsheron, on which Baku is situated, have become so frightened that they are leaving in droves. The quarantine commission at Baku has telegraphed the ministry of the interior, that though there is a little betterment in the sanitary condition of the city, the regulations for preventing the spread of the disease are not sufficiently stringent to effect the end sought. The commission asks for further power in the prem-

The military physician at Dushak has telegraphed that the disease there has got beyond his control, and asking that medical attendance and nurses be sent to him. A feature of the epidemic is the rapidity with which the persons stricken with it collapse. One of the guards on the Trans-Caspian railway was seized with cholera and died on his train before any medical assistance could be obtained for him.

FATAL FUN.

A School Teacher Sought to Scare Three Young Lads-One of Them Shoots Him With a Riffe.

VAN WERT, O., June 29.-B. L. Richie, a popular and well-known school teacher of Convoy, seven miles west of this city, was fatally shot by a flobert gun in the hands of Shirley Longsworth, the fourteen-year-old son of Dr. Longsworth. Mr. Richie was walking on the railroad near the village when he saw young Longsworth and two companions coming. He recognized them at a distance and sought to scare them by playing the role of a tramp. He made some movement as if to do the boys bodily injury when young Longsworth drew his flobert gun and fired, though with no intention of killing the supposed tramp. The boys then ran off to the home of Mr. Ritchie's mother and told her that they had shot a tramp. Several men went back to look for the victim. They found him profusely. The ball passed between left lung and lodged in his side.

A Decision on the Massie Law. COLUMBUS, O., June 29.-Among the decisions made by the supreme court Tuesday was one in the case of Ashley et al, vs. Dan J. Ryan, secretary of state. This is the case brought to test the Massie incorporation law, requiring a fee of 1 1-10 per cent. of the capital stock. About $200,000 are now involved in this litigation and the decision confirms the state in an income from the secretary of state's office of $150,000 per annum, as the decision sustains the Massie law.

French Bill Against Dueling. Paris, June 29.—The murder of Capt. Mayer by the Marquis de Mores has aroused a strong public feeling against dueling. Two bills have been introduced in the chamber of Deputies to suppress the practice altogether. Henry Rochefort urges that fencing schools be closed, because they promote dueling. There is a growing prejudice against dueling on the ground that it has ceased to be a harmless amusement and is really capable of being dangerous.

The Draytons Make Up. NEW YORK, June 29.-All doubts concerning the reconciliation of Mr. and Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton were set at rest by the announcement that they met Tuesday at the Astor mansion. The great objection came from Drayton, who thought he was injured beyond repair, but by constant urging and skillful work the family have at last procured a practical settlement of the whole matter.

Three Killed by Lightning. NASHVILLE, Tenn. June 29.-News just reached here that Rev. Shelby Hardy and two daughters were killed by lightning, near Ridgeville, Monday evening. The three were returning in a buggy when the storm came up and they sought shelter under a tree. The bolt which killed them did not hurt the horse. The blackened corpses of the three were found late Monday night.

A Thousand Delegates Present. AKRON, O., June 29 .- The first business session of the state convention of the Young People's Christian Endeavor societies of Ohio was held in the First Baptist church, this city, Tuesday morning. One thousand delegates and many visitors, representing all parts of the state, are in attendance. The convention will be in session three days.

Big Fire at Seattle. SEATTLE, Wash., June 29.-The entire stock and building of Schwabscher Bros. & Co., one of the largest general merchandise dealers on Puget sound, was destroyed by fire Monday night. The loss on the building is $80,000. The firm carried a stock worth $320,000, of which nothing was saved.
